

Registration guidelines for Seminar on Autonomous Air Vehicles (AAV-2023)

Aeronautical Development Establishment (ADE), DRDO jointly with Design Division of The Aeronautical Society of India, Bangalore is organizing the fourth edition of “Autonomous Air Vehicles - Technologies & Applications” during 6-7 January 2023 at ADE, Bangalore. The seminar will be conducted in hybrid mode with Offline and online participation.

The guidelines for seminar are as follows:

There are three types of participants

1. Industry / Research organization
Participant working in Research and Development organization both Government & Private Organization
2. MSME / Academia & Startup
Participant working in Academia, MSME and Startup
3. Students
Undergraduate, Graduate and Post Graduate Students.

Only Indian Residents are eligible to participate in the seminar

Type-1: Industry & Research Organization

1. They have to submit a copy of Organization ID
2. Registration fee is Rs. 6000 for offline and Rs. 3000 for online participation

Type-2: Academia, Startup & MSME

1. They have to submit a copy of Organization ID
2. Registration fee is Rs. 4000 for offline and Rs.2000 for online participation

Type-3: Students

1. They have to submit a copy of College ID
2. Registration fee is Rs. 500 for offline and Rs 250 for online participation
3. Students who have passed out in year 2022 can also enroll in students Category.
4. Offline Participation is permitted only for Masters and PhD Students

Method of registration:

1. The participants have to fill and submit the online registration form and upload necessary documents like identity proof and payment details etc.,
2. Organizing committee shall send the confirmation mail.
3. The online link will send one day prior to the event.