of pay is granted with retrospective effect, or when an offender may be credited with the balance of the increased emoluments for days upon which he would otherwise have been mulcted in full.

(5) The provisions of sub-regulations (1) to (4), above shall not apply to officers who are only absent from a part of their ship.

(6) Calculation of Period of Absence—(i) The period of improper absence included in the charge shall strictly be computed from the time when leave expires (or the time of breaking out) until the time of return to the ship or place of duty. (ii) When an officer surrenders, or is apprehended as an absentee away from his ship or place of duty or the locality in which his leave expires, the Commanding Officer may, having regard to the circumstances, consider the absence as having terminated at the time of such surrender or apprehension.

(iii) When an absentee is arrested by the civil authority on another charge and is subsequently handed over to the naval authorities, his absence without leave shall be regarded as ceasing from the time of his arrest by the civil authority.

215B. Mulcts of Pay and Allowances for Improper Absence in Respect of Sailors on Conviction by a Court Martial. Every sailor who is found guilty of absence without leave or improperly leaving his ship or place of duty by a Court Martial under section 51 of the Act shall be charged Mulcts of pay and allowances as provided in Regulations 41 to 49 of Regulations for the Navy Part II:

NOTE: The principal regulations were published in the Extra Ordinary Gazette of India, Part II, section 4, dated the 6th March, 1963 under No. S.R.O. 2(2E), and subsequently amended vide:

New Delhi, the 4th May, 1987

S.R.O. 158.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules to further amend the Defence Research and Development Service Rules, 1979, namely:

1. (1) These rules may be called Defence Research and Development Service (Amendment) Rules, 1987.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Defence Research and Development Service Rules, 1979, in rule 11, in sub-rule (1), for class (a) the following clause shall be substituted, namely:

"(a) The vacancies in the grade of Scientist 'B' shall be filled 90 per cent direct recruitment; and 10 per cent through a limited departmental competitive examination failing which by direct recruitment. All Scientists and Technical personnel having 5 years regular service in Defence Research and Development Organisation and possessing the educational qualifications prescribed for the post of Scientist 'B' in Schedule III shall be eligible to appear at the said examination for which there shall be no upper age limit. Unless covered by any of the exceptions that may, from time to time, be notified by the Government in this behalf no candidate shall be permitted to avail of more than three chances at the examination. The conduct of the limited departmental competitive examination shall be governed by regulations made by the Department of Defence Research and Development, Ministry of Defence.
