(a) For clause (a) of sub-rule (2), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:

"(a) Assessment Boards shall be convened at least once every year at such intervals as may be prescribed by the Director General in consultation with the Commission."

(b) For clause (d) of sub-rule (2), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:

"(d) All officers who have completed five years regular service in the grade shall be eligible for appointment to the next higher grade, provided that those who have rendered 'three years' regular service in the grade and the reports earned by them during this period are 'satisfactory' and those who have rendered 'four years' regular service in the grade and all the reports earned by them during this period are 'Very Good' shall also be eligible for appointment to the next higher grade."

(c) For sub-rule (4), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:

"(4) All officers under the different methods specified in clauses (2) to (6) of rule 6, for promotion, shall be in consultation with the Commission, except when appointed as Central Government Group 'A' officer on deputation. Selection by direct recruitment under clause (2) of rule 6, shall be by interview or written test of both the candidates and the selected officers shall be in the age limit as specified under column (5) of Schedule III. The educational qualifications and experience for appointment to various posts under the service methods mentioned in this sub-rule shall be broadly as specified in Schedule III.

Provided that the age limit specified under column (5) of Schedule III, shall not apply to selection by methods mentioned under clauses (2) to (6) of rule 6:

Provided further that the specific educational qualifications and experience required for different posts shall be prescribed by the Director General on each occasion in consultation with the Commission."

(d) For sub-rule (4) the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:

"(4) Officers appointed on deputation by the method specified in clause (4) of the rule 6 shall be initially appointed for a period of two years which may be extended or curtailed at the discretion of the Director General. In case where it is proposed to extend or curtail the period of deputation, the Director General shall record the reasons therefor in writing and give notice in writing of his intention so to do to the concerned officers. The maximum period of deputation including period of deputation in another post held immediately preceding an appointment, in the same organisation/department shall not exceed five years. However, deputation allowances shall be admissible only for the first four years of deputation."

(e) For sub-rule (5), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:

"(5) Officers appointed on contract by the method specified in clause (4) of the rule 6 shall be ordinarily appointed for a period of six years. They shall, however, be on probation for a period of one year. The period of contract may be extended or curtailed at the discretion of the Director General. In case where it is proposed to extend or curtail the period of contract, the Director General shall record the reasons therefor in writing and give notice in writing of his intention in writing of his intention so to do to the concerned officers. The period of contract may be renewed at the end of six years."
