MINISTRY OF DEFENCE
NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 2nd August, 1982

S.R.O. 195—In exercise of powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Defence Research and Development Service Rules, 1975:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Defence Research and Development Service (Amendment) Rules, 1982.
(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Defence Research and Development Service Rules, 1975—
(1) in sub-rule (1) of rule 11, for the figures "2 (1975)" there shall be substituted the figures "2 (1982)".
(2) in rule 15, for clause (a) of sub-rule (1), the following shall be substituted, namely:
(a) Assessment/Briefing shall be done once in core case by the Board, at such intervals as may be prescribed by the Director General of Defence Research and Development for the purpose of assessing the performance of the Establishment at Headquarters or at the different Establishment.

3. In sub-rule (1) of the following shall be inserted:
(a) Selection of Officers under the different method, in clause (2) to (6) may be done for the maintenance of security:

(b) In conjunction with the Commissioner of Government (Entrepreneur Group), the interviews with the selection committees shall be done at the place of the interview.

(c) The interview shall be within the time-limit of the selection committee.

(d) All the essential qualifications and experience as mentioned in the Schedule III, may be interpreted as the specific educational qualifications and experience at different levels.
shall be prescribed by the Director General on each occasion in consultation with the Commission.

(6) for sub-rule (4) the following shall be substituted, namely:

"(4) Officers appointed on deputation by the method specified in clause (d) of rule 6 shall be initially appointed for a period of two years which may be extended or curtailed at the discretion of the Director General. In case where it is proposed to curtail the period of deputation, the Director General shall give notice in writing of his intention to do so to the concerned officers. The maximum period of deputation shall not exceed five years. However, deputation allowance shall be admissible only for the first four years of deputation.

(6) for sub-rule (5), the following shall be substituted, namely:

"(5) Officers appointed on contract by the method specified in clause (d) of rule 6 shall ordinarily be appointed for a period of six years. They shall, however, be on probation for a period of one year. The period of contract may be curtailed at the discretion of the Director General. In case where it is proposed to curtail the period of contract, the Director General shall give notice in writing of his intention to do so to the concerned officer. The period of contract may be renewed at the end of six years.

(3) in rule 11,

(a) in sub-rule (3),

(i) the words "referred to in the Note below"

(ii) Note occurring at the end shall be omitted;

(b) in sub-rule (5), the following shall be substituted, namely:

"(5) The period of service to which the notes of this schedule relating to the service shall be limited to such periods as the Director General from time to time for the purpose of ensuring effective training to become competent and proficient to undertake the Defence Research and Development work and for training.

(c) after Note 3, the following shall be inserted, namely:

Note 4: In disciplines (including specializations or fields) other than those mentioned in Schedule, such professional or technical qualifications as are approved by the Government of India for appointment by quota posts or other services shall be applicable. An advanced degree or diploma is not being awarded or has not been approved for specific qualifications and experience shall be such as may be prescribed by the Director General in consultation with the Commission.
